Notes and Comments.

Brother R. R. Teeter reports one baptism at Oakville, Ind.

Sister Sterling is doing some good work in eastern Pennsylvania.

Brother Summers reports one baptism, and the work is going forward nicely.

Brother Henry Wise has moved from Pittsburg, Pa., to Parkersburg, W. Va.

Brother I. D. Bowman, of Philadelphia, reports five accessions in his congregation.

North Georgetown has again engaged the services of Brother Kimmel for another year.

Brother J. C. Cripe has changed his address from Zanesville, Ind., to South Bend, Ind.

We are very sorry to learn that Brother Darling is confined to his bed on account of sickness.

Brother J. C. Mackey delivered the address to the Grand Army at Meyersdale, on Memorial Day.

The article entitled "True Manhood," by A. B. Gnagey, and the one entitled "Opportunities," by Roger Darling, were both given at the Young Men's meeting held in Ashland on Sabbath afternoons.

Brother Puterbaugh reports two accessions at Lanark, Ill., with good attendance and interest.

Brother J. S. Bowman sends in some good news from the Old Dominion. Seventeen accessions reported.

On account of sickness, the Editor has been unable to do anything at all on the last issue of the paper and but very little on this.

Brother Miller in company with Brother and Sister Murray attended communion services at Homerville last Saturday evening.

A brother sends us $15 as a donation for the use of the Brethren Book and Tract Committee. Here is a good example for one hundred others to follow.

Brother John E. Copp, in renewing his subscription to the EVANGELIST says, "I cannot do without it." We wish there were three thousand others who couldn't do without it.

A few weeks ago Brother Gillin took a collection at Enon, Iowa, for home mission work which amounted to $65.65. Now brethren, here is a man who preaches the Gospel to his people, who lives the Gospel every day, who has all his forces organized, and this is one of the results of his labors. The same thing could be done at other places.

Brother N. C. Nielsen, of Herington, Kans., writes as follows: "Please find enclosed one dollar to help Brother McFaden in his Tract work as one of the three hundred and sixty five. Why should there not be 365 persons who will each give one dollar a year for three years for this important work? We have a number of good manuscripts for tracts on hand, but can not print them for lack of funds. Brethren, stand by the most potent agency for good that the church has,—its publishing interests.

We are pleased to announce that brother J. C. Mackey of Meyersdale, Pa., has consented to deliver the class address in the College chapel, June 18. The program of the Commencement exercises will be announced in the next issue of the EVANGELIST.

We are in receipt of several song books sent by brother J. H. Hall, of Harrisonburg, Va. He is one of the authors of the books, and while we have not had time to examine them, they have the appearance of excellent music books. After examination we will give them further notice.

In a letter brother D. C. Moomaw says: "We are glad to report progress in our Roanoke work. At our last meeting we received into our fellowship two sisters of influential families, by relation. The summer's work promises a bountiful harvest. Our State Conference re-elected brother J. S. Bowman State Evangelist, and it is proposed that he devote much of the time to the south-west field. Late successes in the Craig and Allegheny counties are most encouraging. The ministerial forces of southern Virginia will be massed there this conference year. May the God of battle lead us. Brother J. M. Bowman, one of our trained singers will be with us much of the time."
